Hello everyone, this is Nicole writing, and I would just like to share with you all some things that God has been showing me throughout these past few months.

One of the biggest things God keeps reminding me of is that He is greater than any circumstance. Sometimes when I would look at a situation, whether it is with a client or with the operation of Hope Awaits, I would think that this situation is so big and I have no idea what we are going to do and how we are going to work through it. But God is always greater than any circumstance, and although I may not know what to do in each situation He does, and I only need to look to Him.

“For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,” says the LORD. ‘For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.’” ~ Isaiah 55:8-9

Through my time here I have seen God work in miraculous ways that I couldn't have imagined! When one of our clients came to us he was in a very hurt state, and during his first few weeks here he seemed to go from bad to worse, and during that time I wondered if we could help him. But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love, has transformed this man. This client is now full of life; laughing, joking, making plans for his future, and working through past hurts and circumstances in positive ways. Not only that, but he is also speaking into the lives of the other clients who are at Hope Awaits.

I am so blessed to be able to be here and see God at work in the lives of these men; and I am so honored and humbled that God has called me to be His hands and feet in North Bay by displaying His love to the men who come to Hope Awaits.

God's ways are not my ways; His ways are far better. When I look back and remember all that He has done in my life and at Hope Awaits I know that I can trust Him for tomorrow – our God never fails!

Please continue to pray for all of us at Hope Awaits; the staff, volunteers, and clients. We are in a battle, but we continue to fix our eyes upon Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. God bless you!

Sincerely,

Nicole Millage

Glory be to God!
